THEIR NAMES ON THE LIST

Twelve Trial Board Dismissals Now Before the Commissioners.

ACTION SOON TO BE TAKEN

The Half Has Not Been Told Concerning the Renovation of the Police Department-Action of Mr. Truesdell Forestalled by The Times-More Cases Are Pending.

The police disclosures in yesterday's Trans were of startling dimension They were as much of a surprise to many of the men who wear blue conts and brass buttons as they were to the citizens. The publication of the list of those marked to go rather forestalled the action of the District Commissioners, but there is good menthority for the original statement that the men named yesterday will shortly, with possibly one or two exceptions, be called upon after the present excitement subsides to step

This has been recommunded by the police trial board, and the findings of that body have usually been adopted, and will be in this case unless Mr. Truesdell decides to upset list bestirred themselves early yesterday and the result was that the Commissioners were interviewed yesterday by influential friends who came forward as "foriora hopes" and urged the retention of their favorites, even. in some cases, if a hig fine had to be imposed,

The friends of Sergt. Daley were on hand Fiffeld came home he said: The friends of Sergt. Daley were on hand in force, and represented nearly every temperance society in the District. They came out smiling after their interviews with the authorities, and expressed themselves as contain that their champion would not be removed nor molested.

"In such a suc

"Instead of removing Sergt, Daley," said a prominent Jonatab, "we are going to insist upon his promotion to a lisutenancy just as soon as there is a varsabey."

The friends of Lieut, helly point with pride to his record, "and," said one of them last night, "there is no more danger of his being removed than there is that the rock of Gibraitar will be blown down by a rephyr."

In an interview visitorian Commissioner Truesdell said about one dozen policemen had been recommended for dismissal by the trial board, but that he had not yet reviewed the sourd, but that he had not yet reviewed the

The announcement was made yesterday afternoon that Sergt. Dairy would prefer charges of bribery against Lieut. Gessford, alleging that the latter allowed a certain lot-In Tun Truns several days ago. Piffeld i Lieur, Gessford denies these allegations and his wife by Lieut. Gessford denies these allegations and pronounces them as groundless and absurd. It is understood that Commissioner Trues-ded had the except of Officer Kinger, during the time be was a marine, looked up yester-day at the Navy Department and found, it is said, that he was still advertised for as Oscar officer Ellinger called at the Commis-sorpers' office in his own behalf yesterday, out what encouragement be received, if any, could not be learned. The charge is still least while he was major. He instructed Mr. Gassenheimer to prepare new charges and file them to-day, in order that Mr. Sutton's trial might be set for next Wednesday. The charges were prepared and sworn to, and excuerated him of the charge in which

Tally excounted bim of the charge in which Nettie Russell figured.

Ex-Sergt. Connoily, formerly of the Second, Pourth, and Eighth precipes, sinted last night that he was going to file affidavits with the Commissioners, which will show that he was made a scapegosi of by his superior officers, and was dismissed from the force to "save their buson."

His dismission resulted from the counterly in the second left of the control of the counterly in the second left of the counterly in the counterly

"save their bacon." His dismissal resulted from the scandals connected with the existence of the notorious "Forest City House," at Eleventh and Q streets, in the building now occupied by the colored Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Connolly cinims to have affidavits from ser. Commony cannot so have afficient from several leading effices which will show that Maj. Bobert, while one of the District com-missioners, stated after examining the papers in the Commolly ones, that grave lujustice had been done him, and that those above him had used him as a cutspaw, and then thrown him that there is too much laxity in the enforce ment of the Sanday Houor law in his precinct.

R is reported that they have prepared a list of alleged "sponk easies," which will be put in as evidence against the lieutenant.

mother officer dead drunk in an engine house and carried him to the station-house Doors and carried him to the station-house. Upon arriving there the alleged drunken of finer was carried before the heutenant, and the policeman that brought him in vouchmafed the information that the offender was found "blind drunk." Upon this statement being made the lieutenant produced a pair of appetuales and said to the drunken man:

will lend you another."

The sergeant said that, notwithstanding the fact that the policeman was very drunk ort was made upon the matter by th

* PEARSON WILL NOT EXPLAIN.

Report That Lieut. Vernon, of the Fourth Procinct, is to Be Retired.

The friends of Acting Sergt. Pearson, of the Ninth precinct, claim that the charges against him were presented by a Catholic clergyman on Capitol Hill, and that the main allegation against him is that he is an active member of the A. P. A.

Referring to this matter yesterday Officer Pearson said that he would neither deny nor affirm the story, but would let the party mak-ing the charge prove that he was a member of any organization which interfered with or influenced his action as a preserver of the pence.

An interesting rumor was current last night to the effect that Lieut. Vernon was to its retired from duty at an early day. The lieutenant, who is in charge of the Fourth, or South in Fairfax county, Va., and it is said he is not able to again resume the trying duties of able to again resume the trying duties of lieutenant in charge of a precinct.

His retirement would bring to the fore a long list of sergennts who are willing to wear a lieutenant's cap. Among these may be mentioned Sergis, Faivey, of the Sixth precinct; Daley and Smith, of the Fourth; Acton, of the First; Jones and Kenney, of the Eighth; Kirby of the Fifth, and Keele, of the Third. There are one or two privates, also, who would not object to the elevation in rank and increase in salary, which a promotion would entail upon them.

FIFIELD WAS INHUMAN.

Charges Made by the Policeman's Wife-

Mrs. Sarah C. Fifield, of No. 1000 Eighth street northwest, yesterday filed her answer to the suit for divorce filed some months ago by her husband, Policeman Joseph N. Fifield, of No. 1552 Highth street northwest.

She denies his charge of crucity, and says she was driven from him by his inhuman treatment. She says she has frequently sought to return to him, but he has refused, saying he would make it "hot as h-!" for her should she come back.

Her husband was a widower with three children when they married, and probably his purpose was to get somebody to take care

'Mamma, you want to have a home of your We will have to give a mortgage on the New York avenue lots and some other of our real

The officers who were named in the fatal at testiered themselves early yesterday and acknowledged the signature. This was under the direction of Chapin Brown, Fifield's at-torney. A day or two later she met Mr. Mil-ton Barnard on the street and he told her she had made a mistake to sign the papers with-out consulting someone beside Mr. Fifield and his attorney. Chapin Brown passed as she was talking with Barnard, and when Fifield came home he wild.

he would not allow her proper food or medicine. He told the man servant employed cine. He told the man servant employed about the house not to bring her medicine for which she sent him to the drug store. He would allow her no money.

On January 29, he told her she must get out of bed. He stood over her with his polledman's club uplifted and corsed her, and told her if she did not get out he would have her in the lowest dungeon of the station-house for crueity to his children. She got up and managed to drag herself to her sister's home, where she fell on the doorstep, and when picked up lay unconscious several hours.

She repeatedly attempted to return to his She repeatedly attempted to return to his home and live with him. She sent her brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas, to intercede, but Filled would not receive him. At one time when she attempted to follow him into the partor at home to intercede with him he put her out by force infliction, executive has fer at the second of the control of the his wife believes his movements against her are intended to deprive her of her legal in-terest in it. She thinks, too, he is much in-fluenced in his course by outsiders.

INDICTMENTS WILL NOT HOLD. Grand Jury Instructed to Let Up on Men

Who Sell Liquor to Indians. SIDUX FALLS, S. D., Nov. 1.-Within a few days a very important matter will be settled several respects, including irregular dis-sharpes and illegal height. Irregular dis-Judge Edgerton instructed the grand large sons accused of selling liquor to Indians re-surrer to an indictment against Tom setor Indians.

Judge Edgerton said that it appeared to him at first glance that where Indian lands were divided in severalty, as in the case with the Sisseton reservation, and where the Indians have the right to vote, the latter are effices of the United States and the act of seiling liquor to them is no more of a vio-lation of the United States laws than is the net of selling liquor to a white man. He says that a person selling liquor to an Indian is only amenable to the United States law regu lating that matter when the Indian is under an agent or superintendent.

SHED TEARS OVER THE NEWS. Anxious Crowds Scanned the Bulletins of

Death at St. Petersburg. Sr. PETERSBURG, Nov. 1 .- The office of the Official Messenger was besieged all day by immense crowds anxious to hear the latest news. The bulletin showing that the last hope had been abandoned was sliently scanned by the mournful throng many, of whom were quarter of an hour later a salute of gons from he fortresses of St. Peter and St. Paul con-the fortresses of Sr. Peter and Ca. Ifrmed the sad nows.

Later a telegram stated that the Czar was quite conscious when he took the last sacrament at 10 o'clock this morning.

The members of the Council of the Empire, other high officials, both civil and military, and many private citizens assembled at 10 of alleged "spons cases".

In as evidence against the lieutenant.

A case was brought to the attention of Commissioner Tracedell verbally several days ago by a police exceent, which may agure in the prospective changes in the decrease of his Majesty's soul.

Whose Wcapon Was It. During the cruise of the Mohican, in Bering Sen, Lieut, Collins was accidentally shot in the arm by the discharge of a revolver which was being put away by an armorer. It is against the naval regula-tions for an officer to bring a loaded pistel aboard ship and a court of inquiry was appointed to ascertain who had been negligent in this case. The report of the court has just been received at the Nayy Department, but has not been made mubble partment, but has not been made public.

William Carter, one of the men charged with perjury, was yesterday released on $2,000 bond with Thomas L. Blandford, of No. 131 O street northwest, as surety. Judge Cole lisstreet northwest, as surety. Juage Cole lis-tened patiently to the argument for a reduc-tion of the amount of bond required, but firmly refused to grant it. The feeling against perjury is strong, and if necessary to hold the men the bond would probably be increased instead of reduced.

In Place of Emperor William.

Loydon, Nov. 2 .- A dispatch to the Daily News from Berlin says that the Grand Duke ot Hesse, brother of Princess Alix, the Czarewitch's bethrothed, and Prince Henry of Prussin, brother of Emperor William, will attend the funeral of the Czar, the latter representing the German Emperor.

Fire in Toledo.

Toleno, Ohio, Nov. 2, 2n. m .- Five is now burning in the five-story building on Summit strest, occupied by the United States Express Company, and has spread to the wholesale clothing store of Childs, Lee & Dunlap, another five-story building.

NEW RULER ON THE THRONE

Death Came Peacefully and Painlessly to the "Peasant Czar."

DEMISE UNIVERSALLYMOURNED

Pathetic Scenes About the Bedside of the Dying Monarch-Taking the Oath of Allegiance to the New Czar-Reception of the News at the Russian Legation Here.

St. Perenseure, Nov. 1.—The angel of death, in the shadow of whose pinions the autocrat of all the Russias has been lying for many days, to-day beckoned, and the soul of those held on the death of President Carnot, but there is doubt as to the hishop's taking of the man who had had in his hands the lives and destinies of millions upon millions of men was borne away.

At 2:15 o'clock this afternoon the summons astaclesiment to nontheres, known as the "ian-iaw, Mr. Thomas, to intercede, but Fifted a mould not receive him, At one time when she attempted to follow him into the parior at home to intercede with him he put her out by force, inflicting a serated on her face.

If Trues several day ago, and the transaction of the standard of the following of cannon at Livadia and St. Peters to the said and that the several day ago, and the distribution of the standard of the following of cannon at Livadia and St. Peters to the said and that the several day ago, and the distribution of the standard of the fundamental and the following of cannon at Livadia and St. Peters to force inflicting a serated on her face.

If Trues several day ago, are the fundamental and several day ago, and that the fundamental are the fundamental and several day ago.

If the fundamental are the fundamental and several day and the fundamental and several day ago.

If the fundamental are the fundamental and several day ago, and the fundamental and several day ago.

If the fundamental are the fundamental and several day ago, and the fundamental and several day ago.

If the fundamental are the fundamental and several day ago, and the fundamental and several day ago.

If the fundamental are the fundamental and several day ago, and the fundamental day ago, and reigned in his stead.

Since Tuesday, when the doctors informed the Czar that there was no longer room for hope, his majesty composedly walted for the end, attending to necessary state and family affairs in the short intervals of consciousness and freedom from pain. These were necessarily brief, the doctors having had recourse to sedatives to procure sleep and allay pain.

On Wednesday the Coar was still able to be the Coar. charges and illegal height.

Samuel Gassenheimer, manager of the Hotel Lawrence, called upon Major Moore

Hotel Lawrence, called upon Major Moore

Sons accused of selling Houer to Indiana resons accused to the Indiana reas to earn for himself the appellation of the burg.

The night passed with an aggravation of ing cough. The doctors and the Crarina remained in attendance upon him throughout sleep in the ante-rooms,

The morning broke with rain and wind and heavy clouds and the weather much colder. ereased so rapidly that himself, still unconscio-nized that he could li the Czar unconscious, recog-could live only a few hours. He expressed a desire to receive the sacrament, which was administered by Court Chaplain Yanisheff and Father Ivan in the presence of the whole family,

The Czar then conversed long and earnestly with Father Ivan, concluding by asking his family to again gather round him. He spoke to ench member separately, and at the greacest length with the Czarina. He blessed all his children present.

all his children present.

The scene was very pathetic, all being in tears. All this time his majesty was sitting up. After taking leave of his family he grew gradually weaker, and his voice became so indistinct that it was scarcely audible.

About noon a convulsive fit of coughing was followed by a glight sells.

followed by a slight raily. Thence until the end the Caar remained quiet, seemingly free from pain. At 2:15 o'clock he heaved a deep sigh and breathed his last in the arms of the Empress, who then broke down with the father.

majesty's suite were afterward admitted. The flag over the palace was placed at half-mast-and a salute was fired by the vessels in the conveyed by railway to St. Petersburg, stop-ping at the important towns enroute, to en-able the troops to render honors to the dead, The state mourning will commence on Sat-urday. The funeral will probably be held

It is reported here that the populace of Ioseow, indignant at what they believe to ave been the majpractice of Dr. Zacharin in he case of the Czar, are wrecking the doctor's house in that city.

GRIEF AT THE RUSSIAN LEGATION.

Not Yet Determined Whether Religious Services Will Be Held Here. The announcement of the Czar's death brought profound grief to the Russian legation at Washington. Aside from the veneration which Russians while on a tour around the world, a Japanese have for their Emperor, it was a personal sorrow to Prince Cantacuzene, who had, before coming to this country, been brought into

Gen Booth, Convention Hall. November 5.

The count reserved seet rickets proports have for their Emperor, it was a personal sor-row to Prince Cantacuzene, who had, before coming to this country, seen brought into elcs: personal relations with the Car and had enjoyed an association with the imperial ally,

It was on leaving Bussia for the United States that Prince Cantacutone saw the Em-peror for the last time, bidding him and the convertient good-by, and bearing from them words of kindness and admiration for the United States.

At that time the Czar was in robust health, and his glant physique gave indication that it was proof against disease.

It is not yet determined whether religious ceremonies will be held in Washington in commemoration of the Cvar. There is no Greek church here, and the one at New York is not connected with the established Church of Bussie.

At San Francisco Bishop Nicholas is at the head of the Greek church, diocese of Alaska. At the time Alaska was owned by Bussia, the the purchase of the country by the United States, the many Russians there have con-but there is donot as to the meson s many the long trip.

Ambassador Patenotre, of France, paid a high tribute to the late Coar, whom he de-scribed as a warm friend of France, the peo-ple of which country would feel his loss al-

Upon the receipt of the official notification of the Czar's death Mr. Adee, the Second Asof the Cast Section In Ance, no Second As-sistant Secretary of State, acting Secretary in the Illness of Secretary Gresham, called upon Prince Cuntacuzene and conveyed to him ver-bally the condolence of the President and Secretary of State. A formal letter of condolence from Secretary Gresham will later be sent to

Prince Cantacuzene has telegraphed to Bishop Nicholas, of the Greek Church of Alaska, to inquire whether he can come to Washington and hold a memorial service for all the symptoms and a continuous distress. Life of Labor for the Good of the Rusof all the Russias, was born February 26 (March 10, new style), 1845. He was the second son of Emperor Alexander II. After the death of his elder brother, Nicholas, in the death of his elder brother, Nicholas, in 1865, he became the heir nyparent to the throne, and married on November 9, 1866, the Princess Marie Dagmar (who was rebayilised into the Eastern Church under the name of Maria Feodorovna), daughter of Christian IX, of Wales and the hing of Greece.

CZAR'S MEMORABLE CAREER,

The Czar was educated in the Russian universities, his training being largely of a military nature. In 1877, during the struggle between Russia and Turkey, he was placed in tween russia and Turkey, he was placed in command of an army corps, but he did noth-ing of note and was finally superceded. Alexander II was assassinated by Nihilists on March 13, 1881, while returning in a sieigh from a parade at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. I'wo bombs were thrown into the sleigh, one of which exploded at the Emperor's feet, inof the life and actions of Alexander III. ascended the throne March 1, 1881 (Marnew style, immediately upon the death of his father. His coronation, without which the great majority of his subjects hold the Czar as merely the Czar-elect, was one of the most

The doctors fear the results of reacher and doctors fear the results of reacher and other functions. When all was over the Charewitch, Grand Duchess Kenia, and other functial relatives approached the bedside in turn to take a last farewell.

Maials and members of his well as developed asplendid system of internal improvements, the Siberian railway being one than the first of his favorite projects. He and a salute was fired by the salue of the palace guard were marshalled in the square in front of the palace chapel for the ecretiony of swearing allegiance to the new Czar. They were the first to take the oath.

The grand dukes were the next to swear allegiance, and they were followed in the order of precedence by the high court functionaries, court officials, military officials, and civil officials.

The body is now being embalmed. It will probably be laid for a couple of days in the probably be laid for a couple of days in the palace chapel. The arrangements that will be embalaced to the commentations at this time the Car decided not to attend the opening of the Memorian Church at Borki. be made for the funeral are still unknown.

It is believed that the remains will be embarked on the imperial yacht Polarnaia Fiverada (Polar Star) at Yalia, where the Seventh army corps will render military honors.

The whole Black Sea fleet will escort the yacht to Odessa, whence the loody will be refleave to St. Petersburg, stopbeen caused by weak rails, but which is gen-erally believed to have been the work of erally believed to have been the work of nihilists. The terrible nature of his father's death, the fact that his life was unsafe, and the natural melaneboly of his temperament seems to have rendered him peculiarly sub-ject to despondent moods, and he gradually retired from the brilliant social life which surrounds the Russian court, surrounds the Bussian court.

Nicholas Alexander, the Czarewitch, is the eldest of the five children of the Czar. He was born at St. Petersburg, May 6, 1868, is a member of the imperial council, a Knight of the Golden Fisece, a Knight of the Golden Fisece, a Knight of the Garter, commander of all the Cossaeks, etc. In appearance he closely resembles his coursin, the Duke of York. He has the temperament of a soldier, and the Czar is said to have little patience with his abstract specialtions.

Two or three years ago at Kioto, Japan,

SENT A CHECK TO WHEELER

Isidor Straus Will Support the Independent Candidate.

TAMMANY LEADERS DISTURBED

They Fear a Defection of Hebrew Votes from the Hill Ticket-Civic Union Endorses Col. Strong's Candidacy-Walsh and Bacon Chosen by Georgia Senatorial Caucus.

New York, Nov. 1 .- Considerable talk was aused to-day by the announcement that Isidor Straus, brother of Nathan Straus, the original candidate of Tammany for mayor, has sent a check to the Wheeler campaign ommittee, and that the other brother, Oscar Straus, ex-minister to Turkey, had sent a letter to the committee, indersing Mr. Wheeler as a Democratic candidate for Governor. Naturally this announcement did not tend to please the Tammany chieftains, as they seem to fear that the attitude of the Straus family will lead to the easting of many Hebrew votes against both Hill and the local Tammany ticket, Senator Hill made one of his flying visits to the Democratic State headquarters to-day. Chief Thacher reported that Mr. Hill was cheerful, healthful, and confident, There were no other visitors of any importance at the various headquarters to-day, and the news at all of them was of slight consequence. nows at all of them was of slight-consequence.

A committee representing the Civic Union waited on Col. Strong this afternoon and notified him of the indorsement by that body of his nomination for mayor, assuring him that the intention of the civic committee was to co-operate with him. Among those on the committee were Prof. John P. Brophy, Austin E. Ford, Mired T. Oakley, J. F. Stanton, and M. F. Hughes.

T. V. Powderly, the former head of the Knights of Labor, was in this city to-day and on being asked his opinion as to the political cituation in New York, said that although in Pennsylvania he was somewhat familiar with politics, he did not care to meddle with them here.

A great number of meetings have been ar-

A great number of meetings have been arranged for both parties in all parts of the State for Friday and Saturday, the closing of the campaign. Nothing of importance in the way of meetings is likely to occur after Saturday, although the managers on both sides will relax none of that vigilance that they have shown from the outset,

John Boyd Thacher, chairman of the Democratic State executive committee, to-day made a statement in reply to the statement of Joseph Choate regarding the effect of proposed constituent changes in the next Gen. Harrison will leave here to-morrow at where a special train will be waiting for him

He will speak from the train to-morrow afteron in Albany. From Muncie, Ind., he will go to New Casfrom glunds, ind., as will go to New Cas-tle and then to Anderson, making speeches in each place. In Elwood, Alexandria, and towns that are in the great gas belt he will address meetings, and go from there to Rush-ville, Greenville, Shelbyville, and thence to yville, and thence to

TWO SENATORS NOMINATED.

Patrick Walsh and Augustus Bacon Chosen by Legislative Caucuses. ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 1.-The Democratic caucus of the Georgia General Assembly nominated two United States Senators this afternoon. The appointment of Senator Patrick Waish by Gov. Northen was unanimously afirmed by his election to fill out the unexpired term of the late Senator Colquitt.

For the long term, beginning March 4, 1825, Hon, Augustus O, Eacon was nominated on the first ballot, he receiving 32 votes.
Congressman Henry G. Turner received 37.
Congressman Henry G. Turner received 37.
Whish, I wotes for the long term. The nomination of Bacon was then made unantmous. The election will take place next Tuesday, but to-day's caucus settles the matter

Wholesnle Suits Brought Against Alleged Citizens by a Private Detective.

San Francisco, Nov. 1. -- The biggest political sensation of the campaign was sprung here this afternoon. C. J. Stillwell, a private detective, brought suit against Registrar Evans and 6,000 voters, who, he charges, are filegally on the rolls.

Stiliwell claims to represent the Democratic and non-partisan purity of election com-Every one of the 6,000 men accused are tentioned by name. It is alleged that they ave no legal residence, and the complain-nts demand that their names be striken from the register. JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Nov. 1 .- Channesy M. Depew addressed one of the most enthusiastic Republican gatherings ever held Chautauqua county in this city to-night. The meeting was held in the new car burns of the electric street railway. Four thousand chairs had been provided and these were filled and standing room was all taken an hour before the meeting opened. Thousands surrounded the building unable to gain admission.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 1.-Senator D. W. Voorhees spoke here to-night. His speech was a history of the tariff legislation of the last Congress. He said that the Democratic party went into power with distinct pledges and had merely carried them out. If any one was to biame it was the voters, as they went to the polls with their eyes open. Senator Voorhees was ollowed by Congressman Caruth, of Ken-

Mckinley in the Home Circuit. Conumbus, Nov. 1 .- Gov. McKinley made a trumphial tour through the Thirteenth France intend to jointly exert their influ-Congressional district to-day, speaking at Delaware, Marion, Sucyrus, Attica, Believue, and a number of smaller places on the Sandusky Short Line. At Sandusky to-night Gov. McKiniey spoke to a crowd of 8,000 in Exposition Hall on the Fair grounds, eclipsing the great Blaine Hill Speaks at Schenectady. SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Nov. 1.—Senator D. B. Hill spoke here to-night at the Center Street Opera House. He first dissussed the proposed apportionment act, and attacked it in a vigorous man-ner. He then took up the past records of the party and discussed the part they took in the repeals of the Federal election law and showing Sherman bill. The tariff was treated at

E. Crisp spoke to an audience of 2,000 at the opera house in this city to-night. His speech was well received and very effective,

Gen. Booth. Convention Hall. November & 25 cent reserved sent tickets Droop's

BOTH SHELLS BROKE.

Inferior Showing by Projectiles at the In dian Head Tests The tests of projectiles that are intended to explode were continued at Indian Head yes

Two projectiles were fired at the seven-inch Two projecties were fired at the seven-inch nickel-isteel plate used for a similar purpose Tuesday, one made by the Taylor Iron and Steel Company and the other by the Carpenter Company. Both shells broke, the former on the plate, which it dished baddy, and the latter after the point had gone through the other after the point had gone through the other side.

The showing made was much inferior to those made by the Wheeler Sterling Company and Midvale Steel Company, tried Tuesday, when both projectiles went through the plate and came out comparatively unnjured.

The charges of a new high explosive submitted to the Navy Department were fired from a three-pounder at the proving ground to-day. The first at an armor plate detonated when it struck, the second, arainst wood, failed to detonate. The third charge was fired also at wood, but with a fulminate of mercury cap. This also failed to detonate because the fulminate cap was not in sufficiently intimate contact with the explosive.

WILLIAM MAKES A SPEECH.

He Expresses His Sympathy for the New Russian Ruler. BERLIN, Nov. 2 .- The Kruz Zeltung this morning printed a dispatch from Stettiu stating that Emperor William last evening dined with the officers of the Kings regiment of

with the officers of the Kings regiment of greendlers and made a speech.

Last night after Empreor William concluded his remarks he sat down and then rose again and announced that he had received news of far-reaching gravity, the death of the Crar.

"He was mindful of our traditions," he added, "which in times past bound us in the brotherhood of arms to the flussian imperial house and in resent these again become house, and in recent times again brought us together. To our sympathy for the new Em-peror we couple the desire that heaven may give him strength for his difficult office. "Long live Emperor Nicholas III. Hurrah." The band then played the Hussian anthem.

"STAR-EYED GODDESS" ORATES. Watterson's Ejoquent and Patriotic Trib-

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 1 .- Col. Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, was enthusiastically greated by a large audience at the Academy of Music to-night. He delivered an address on "Abraham Lin-dent. The lecture was in aid of the fund raised by the Philadelphia Brigade for the erection of a monument at Antietam in mem-ory of their fallen comrade. After the lecture Col. Watterson was the guest of the Union League at an elaborate are any was given the again on a four in the seventh round. The decision was very unsatisfactory.

The affair was under the management of Billy Madden. The men were to fight fifteen rounds, Marquis of Queensberry rules. Slavin was finely trained, while Daly was manifestly out of condition.

out of condition. HARNESS THE SUSQUEHA NNA.

Scheme of Baltimore Capitalists to Turn

Water Power to Account. Baltimone, Md., Nov. 1 .- The organization of a company to utilize the waters of the Susquehanna River to provide electric power for manufacturing and other plants in this city is in active progress.

The plan is to locate the plant at Concwingo, which is thirty-five miles in an air line from Baltimore, from which power will be transmitted by overhead wires, taking in several towns in the way. Land on the Sus-quehanna has sirendy been purchased. It is claimed that any amount of power can e generated, and that to give at least 5,000

SATOLLI AND THE CARDINALATE. Fresh Gossip Regarding New Honors to

the Papal Ablegate. New York, Nov. 1 .- The Washington correspondent of the New York Staats Zeitung. telegraphs that paper that the elevation of Mgr. Satolli to the rank of cardinal in next December is no longer a secret at the papal

He is receiving congratulations already, and Mgr. McMahon has contributed $1,000 to the expense of the elevation of the arch

Mgr. Satolit will soon return to Rome, and as his successor the name of Mgr. Lorenzilli is frequently mentioned.

DUCK SHOOTING TO-DAY. Strong Force of Gunners Is in Readines on the Susquebanna. HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., Nov. L.-The duck shooting season opens on the Susquehanna flats to-morrow morning at 5 o'clock. After six weeks of active preparation for the sport everything appears to be in readiness. Succeeding last year's unprofitable ending it was supposed that fewer gunners would engage in the shooting this season, but the New York, Philadelphia, and Hattimore sporting fraternity are out in stronger force

FRENCH ALREADY INTRIGUING. They Want the New Czar to Enter into an

LONDON, Nov. 2 .- The correspondent of the Daily News at Odessa says that the French party in Russia and the Russian party in ence to induce the new Crar to enter into a regular offensive and defensive alliance be between the two powers.

It is believed, however, that they will not succeed in anything beyond the maintenance of the present entente. Vice President at Joliet.

JOLIET, Ill., Nov. 1.—Vice President Stevenon arrived in this city from Bloomington this afternoon, and was met by a delegation of Democrats, who escorted him to the Palmer He held a reception, and this evening the Joliet Theater was crowded. Mr. Stevenson talked for one hour on the present condition of the country, defending the new tariff law

Mexico Denies It.

Senor Romero, the Mexican minister, has received from the Governor of Pueblo, Mex-BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 1 .- Hon. Charles ico, a statement showing that the jail and court records for five years past fail to show anything relating to one Hugh Bryce, who was alleged to be on his way to the United States to present a claim for damages for ill treatment by Mexican officials. The story penetrate the thin armor of ships and then Tragedy Enacted By Frederick Weil and Rhea, a Scarlet Woman.

SHOT HER; KILLED HIMSELF

END OF GUILTY RELATIONSHIP

He Sought to Rid Himself of Her-They Had a Quarrel in Mahogany Hall and He Fired Two Bullets Into Her Head and Thes. Turned the Pistol Upon Himself.

900 Thirteenth street is known in that scarlet district called the "Division," an octoroon giri, who chooses to call hereelf likes, quarrelied with Frederick Well, a white soldier in the marine service, with whom she had fallen Weil fired a bull t into his mistress' head and then committed self-murder by shooting himself in the mouth,

Within the walls of Mahogany Hall, as No.

Well died within a few minutes, but his intended victim did not receive immediately fatal wounds, She was removed to the Emergency Hospital, where she is lying in a she will live or die, but it is scarcely probable that she can recver.

The quarrel lasted about five months. The girl's real name is Annie Granity, and she recently came here from her home in Horiford, N. C. She is twenty-three years old, and an ectoroon. Frederick Weil was born in St. listed in the marine service August 20, 1889, at Mare Island Navy Yard, San Francisco. He re-salisted at Washington, August 20 last, one day after receiving hunorable discharge. In the papers he is marked as a very desirable noter.

In the liaison with Rhea, the dead solding chose to be known as Fred W. Wiledon, and she always used that name in writing to him. He was in the lirst class of the service, and a liberty after guard mount and drill until a o'clock in the morning. He trequestly called on Rhea and many letters passed between them. Recently Well tired of his intimacy with the girl and told her that he must break with her.

Acting on this intention, and evidently detribute to the memory of the martyred Presi-

He delivered an address on "Abraham Lincoln," which was an eloquent and pathetic tribute to the memory of the martyred Presdent. The lecture was in aid of the fund raised by the Philadelphia Brigade for the erection of a monament at Antietam in memory of their fallen conraide.

After the lecture Col. Watterson was the guest of the Union League at an elaborate banquet, attended by a large number of prominent men.

GIVEN TO DALY ON A FOUL.

Though Out of Condition He Won the Fight With Slavin.

Burraio, N. Y. Nov. 1.—Jim Daiy, of Buffalo, and Jack Slavin of Australia, fought seven rounds before 7,000 people in the rooms of the Buffalo Athietic Club in this city tonight.

Daiy was given the fight on a foul in the seventh round. The decision was very un-he fell back senseless and soon died.

The girl was also prestrate on the floor with blood flowing from two puging wounds in the back of her head. She was conscious.

"Will I die, do you think?" were the first words she uttered, pitcousity.

All possible comfort was given her, and at once she began to pray. An ambulance was summoned, and while waiting for the doctor the other women moved about in a fremield way. Furniture and carpet were covered with blood. Blea was conveyed to the Emergency Hospital, where it was found that the belief size, me thin netry, this over the pane. At anything happens to me notify Unile Sam, Marine barracks.

The pistol with which the deed was committed was a 38-calther buil-dog. A lox of cattrifges was also found in the dead man's possession. Coroner Hammett will hold an ingoest on the case at 1 o'clock to-day. The man example from the month of the corner.

ESCAPE OF A PATIENT. Dr. Nevirt Had Some Difficulty in Recapturing Samuel Mundell. While in a delirum, Samuel Mundell, one of the smallpox nationts, burst his bonds yesterday morning and escaped from the hospital, Dr. Nevitt and Nurse Bessley chased the man, who was making for the high board fence surrounding the hospital. The fugitive sence surrounting the nospatal. The laggitte had climbed to the top when caught by Dr Nevitt and dragged down again.

Mundell tried desperately to get away, but his weakened state soon told and the patient was again placed in the hospital. He had chewed the straps asunder which are used to keep the sufferer from scratching his face.

This was the only incident in connection This was the only ineldest in connection with the situation. Dr. Woodward said last night that there were no new cases and no suspected ones, and that those in the her pital are recovering. Evidence in the Wham court-martial is new

An electric railway will be built to the sum-mit of Mount Lowe, in Southern California. Gautemala will not go to war with Mexico. One hundred and thirty-four persons were drowned by the sinking of the Wairarapa on Sunday night off the coast of New Zealand. Capt. Alfred Dreyfus, arrested at Paris on the charge of treason and esplonage on be-half of the triple alliance, will probably be Fourteen members of the Whitecap band who fought a pitched battle with "Blue Bi in Sevier county, Tenn., have been arrest Mrs. Thomas A. Wickes, wife of the second vice president of the Pullman Palace Car Company, has applied for a divorce on the ground of crueity, alleging that Mr. Wickes ms repeatedly beaten, struck, and kicked

Mrs. Jennie Webb, wife of a Philadelphia physician, committed suicide by jumping from a third-story window. Cause, meian-choly, induced by loss of a child.

The secret work of the Roman Catholia Knights of St. John has received the full con-sent and approbation of Mgr. Satolli. Hon, Glichrist Porter, ox Member of Con-gress and brother-in-law of J. C. Broadhead, minister to Switzerland, died at Hannical, Chicago bakers have increased the size of their loaves, but have not lowered the price of bread. Charles Wilkinson, social leader, Sunday-sensor superintendent, president of the Y. M. C. A., and assistant cushler of the First Na-

Mo., yesterday, of heart disease, aged seventy faulter for $10,006.